

Twelfth Annual Public Health – Madison, Dane County Breastfeeding Symposium

“Impacts on Breastfeeding from Toxins to Touch”

Thursday, October 25, 2012

Exhibition Hall at the Alliant Energy Center, Madison, WI

For map and directions, go to:

<http://www.alliantenergycenter.com/Directions/LocationMaps/tabid/73/Default.aspx>

An educational symposium for ALL nursing and medical staff who work with breastfeeding mothers and babies, and pregnant women to increase knowledge regarding breastfeeding

AGENDA

5:00 PM Registration, Exhibits, A light meal will be served

5:45 PM Opening Remarks

6:00 PM “Hands on Pumping”

6:45 PM BCSCW Annual Meeting / Networking Opportunity

7:15 PM “Environmental Toxins and Breastfeeding”

8:15 PM Final Remarks and Evaluations

SPEAKERS

Anne Eglash, MD, FABM, IBCLC
Sharon Marshall, BSN, RN, IBCLC

Contact Hours Available

Space is Limited – Register ONLY if you will be attending

No charge to participants

Please PRINT CLEARLY:

Name: _____ Position/Title: _____

Clinic: _____ Address: _____ City: _____

Phone: _____ E-mail: _____

Registration preferred by E-MAIL: ccameron@publichealthmdc.com

or you may FAX to: 608-266-4858 Attn: Cathy Cameron

Presented By: Public Health – Madison and Dane County
Breastfeeding Coalition of South Central Wisconsin
Meriter Hospital & St. Mary’s Hospital

Coordinator:
Alice Meyer, RN, BSN – phone: 242-6348
E-mail: Ameyer@publichealthmdc.com